ZZ Ward Debuts New Song “Marry Well” via Marie Claire

Love And War EP Out August 28th

North American Tour To Kick Off August 22nd at
The Inaugural ‘Billboard Hot 100 Music Festival’

“Ward infuses ‘LOVE 3X’ with shimmering bubblegum pop beats. Don’t be surprised if you find yourself muttering it under your breath all day—it’s as infectious and catchy as anything. Do you love love love it?”

– NYLON

“...her songs are bluesy and sultry, allowing the underlying rap beats and rhythms to bolster her powerhouse vocals.”

– BILLBOARD

“Her music clearly reflects her love of the craft and her interest in combining hip-hop and the blues.”

– SHE KNOWS

ABOUT ZZ WARD:

ZZ Ward burst onto the scene with her fiery Eleven Roses mixtape in early 2012 – sparking a media frenzy and showcasing her soulful take on a blues/hip hop blend, which ultimately led to her critically-acclaimed debut album Til The Casket Drops. Her debut single off the album, the foot-stomping "Put The Gun Down," broke into the Top 10 on the AAA radio chart – staying there for 10 weeks and was followed by two more Top 10 singles, her anthemic "365 Days" and her gut-wrenching ballad "Last Love Song". A bonafide headliner, ZZ has wrapped numerous sold-out headlining tours, opened for Fitz & The Tantrums, Gary Clark Jr. and Eric Clapton and has quickly become a festival darling – gracing stages including Coachella, Bonnaroo, Firefly and Made in America. ZZ now has her sights set on her sizzling new single "LOVE 3X" and the release of her Love & War EP on August 28th to coincide with the kick-off of her Love & War U.S. headline tour. ZZ's highly-anticipated sophomore album, This Means War, will be released March, 4 2016 via Hollywood Records.
